IS A CANDIDATE

COUNTY SUPT. OAKERSON ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION.

IS AN EFFICIENT OFFICER

Has Held the Office for Six Years and Has Won Prominence in Educational Circles.

County Superintendent W. M. Oakerson announced Tuesday that he would be a candidate at the school election to be held on Tuesday, April 4, for re-election as county superintendent. Mr. Oakerson has been urged by his many friends over the county to run again.

At this time there seems to be no opposition to Mr. Oakerson, and the indications are that no one will oppose him.

Mr. Oakerson has held the office of county superintendent for five years, and for one year was county commissioner. County supervision of schools was adopted during his first term. He is recognized over the state as one of the leading educators, and the work he has done for the educational interests of the county is one of general benefit and of lasting good.

Mr. Oakerson was the leader in the teachers' meeting and the corn and domestic science contests that were held last October, and every one admits that it was the best educational display ever shown in the state. Prominent educators all over the state attended the meeting, and all said that it was the best county teachers' meeting that they had attended. Mr. Oakerson intends to have another one this fall on a much larger scale.

The people of Nodaway county will make no mistake in re-electing Prof. Oakerson for another term, as he is regarded as one of the best county superintendents of schools in Missouri.

DR. FRED C. HONNOLD IS HONORED

Dr. Fred C. Honnold of Chicago, general manager of the Chicago and Big Muddy Coal company, was signally honored a few days since in being elected secretary-treasurer of the Illinois State Coal Operators' association. It is an important office and carries with it a good salary. The state association represents eighty companies, and it is an especial honor to Dr. Honnold to be chosen for such an office, as he is not only the youngest man in the association, but is the youngest in point of membership.

At the banquet following the election of officers Dr. Honnold made a speech, as did two other new officers. The object of the association is to place itself on a basis where it can wield the proper influence in the coal mining industry, and it is a matter of pride to us that a former Maryville young man is chosen to a most important office in the organization to accomplish that end. Dr. Honnold's business associate, Harry N. Taylor of Chicago, was elected president.

Dr. Honnold is the son of Mrs. M. J. Honnold, and the brother of Mrs. George P. Bellows of Maryville. He is one of the Maryville high school graduates who are helping to carry on some of the world's big work.

A marriage license was issued Tuesday afternoon to Charles H. Spimangle and Miss Nellie V. McCarty of Clarinda, Ia.

Mrs. Edward T. Rasmussen of Riverton, Neb., arrived in Maryville Tuesday noon on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Crane.

E. Wright of Bedison was transacting business in the city Tuesday.

REGENTS' MEETING

NORMAL BOARD TO MEET IN ST. JOSEPH NEXT MONDAY.

OLD MEMBERS TO RETIRE

Last Session for President Craig and Judge Rusk, Whose Places Are Filled by New Members.

A meeting of the board of regents of the Northwest Normal school has been called by President Craig at St. Joseph, Monday, February 20, at 10 o'clock at the Robidoux hotel. This meeting will be the last one that President Craig and Judge William D. Rusk of St. Joseph will attend.

The board will settle up all old business and will also take action on the matter of completing the Normal building. Some weeks ago Contractor D. E. Marshall surrendered his contract on the building and gave notice that he couldn't finish the building. The board took the matter up with Attorney-General Major, and he told them to go ahead and complete the structure.

The two members of the board who were appointed last Friday by Governor Hadley—W. A. Blagg and James B. O'Brien to succeed Anderson Craig and Judge William D. Rusk—will attend the meeting. Their names were sent to the state senate Monday by Governor Hadley for confirmation, and that body will probably confirm the appointments in a day or so. If they are confirmed by the senate before Monday the board will then elect its new officers and take up other matters at the meeting to be held in St. Joseph.

Dr. H. K. Taylor and Registrar Rickenbrode will attend the meeting.

Appointed Administrator.

George W. Stockton was appointed by Judge Conn in probate court today administrator of the estate of his wife, Marilla Stockton. Another appointment made today by Judge Conn was appointing E. H. Ralston of Conception Junction guardian of three minors, Walter, John and Mildred Boyer.

Returned from Skidmore.

County Superintendent Oakerson returned Monday night from Skidmore, where on Saturday he addressed the teachers and patrons' meeting of Monroe township held in that town. The meeting was largely attended and a great deal of interest taken.

Kicked by a Horse.

George Chappel, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Chappell, living west of Maryville, was kicked by a horse Sunday and narrowly escaped a broken hip. He was leading a horse out of the barn to water, and in passing several other horses was kicked by one of them in play. Dr. J. H. Todd was called and administered to his bruises. The young man will be confined to his bed for several days.

Spent Day Here.

Mrs. Daniel Seyster and her son, Ben Seyster, of Parnell, spent Monday in Maryville, and were accompanied by their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Critton of Concordia, Kan. Mrs. Critton is a granddaughter of Mrs. Seyster.

Here from Oklahoma.

Mrs. A. E. Foster and 3-year-old son, Merritt, of Anadarko, Okla., arrived in Maryville Monday noon at the home of Mrs. Foster's aunt, Mrs. Ed L. Andrews. Mrs. Foster returned to St. Joseph Monday evening, where she was called by the serious illness of the wife of her brother, Homer Flowers, leaving her little boy with Mrs. Andrews for the present. Her little daughter, Dorothy, is with her in St. Joseph. Mrs. Foster was Miss Elva Flowers, the daughter of Angus Flowers, formerly of this city, now of Hydro, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith of Barnard announced the birth of a daughter. Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Curnutt of East Third street.

Miss Clara Wilson of Savannah arrived in Maryville Tuesday to visit the family of her cousin, John Coburn of East First street.

BLAME AND SORROW

BLEND IN LETTERS ON THE HUBBELL TRAGEDY.

RECEIVED THIS WEEK

By The Democrat-Forum Touching On Those Concerned in the Trial of a Few Days Past.

The editor of The Democrat-Forum is receiving daily many letters on Hez Rasco and the Rasco trial, and the following letters are a fair sample of them:

THE MURDER OF THE HUBBELL FAMILY.

Good-bye, Grandpa!' called the voices
Of two children young and fair,
He a smiling, loving sunbeam,
She with flaxen, flowing hair.
And their grandpa heard the voices,
Standing in the open door,
Heard the voices of his darlings,
Voices that would speak no more.

Slowly strolled that family homeward
To their home upon the hill,
Where a demon lay in waiting,
Waiting for a chance to kill.
It was dark, the sun had sunken
In the clouded western skies,
Through the window of that cottage
Came the gaze of fiendish eyes.

In the village bells were ringing,
Tolling out their welcome chime,
But their music passed unheeded
By this messenger of crime.
Soon the flames light the heavens
Of that dark and gloomy night,
For the crime had been committed
And the murderer was in flight.

In that house, a roaring furnace,
Lay two children, man and wife,
Murdered by a hellish being,
By a demon with breath and life.
It was he who stilled the voices
Of that happy home that eve,
While he left the world to wonder,
Left the world to mourn and grieve.

Slowly the sun kissed the horizon
On the following autumn day,
Casting shadows soft and gentle,
Where those burning bodies lay.
Now they lay in death's cold shroudings,
Free from all this world of care,
For their souls have long departed
To a land more bright and fair.

A SYMPATHIZER.

HEZ RASCO.

All alone in his cell he's sitting there,
Brooding o'er the quiet court room, where
Justice, stern, with her calm, unbiased brow,
Stooped to brand him the demon he is now.
I sometimes wonder if there's justice done,
As I gaze o'er the tangled path you've run;
And even if, Hez Rasco, you be wrong,
Or right, mayhap, take certitude along.
That many waft a prayer on high and some indeed who're sad,
Regret your doom — misunderstood and poor, misguided lad.
If the fate that's pronounced be undeserved,
If unjust be the sentence that is served,
Remember, then, there is another world,
With the motto "Justice" on every flag unfurled.
Meanwhile, urge your counsellors to do the best they can.
If they fail—well, then we know that you'll die like a man.

A SUBSCRIBER.

WITH THE O'BRIEN-KILEY SHOE COMPANY

The article in Saturday's paper that James B. O'Brien of St. Joseph, the newly appointed member of the board of regents, was president of the Holland & O'Brien Shoe company of St. Joseph, is a mistake. Mr. O'Brien is the president and general manager of the O'Brien-Kiley Shoe company of that city. Mr. O'Brien was formerly connected with the Holland-O'Brien company, but left that organization more than a year ago.

Mrs. W. F. Moyer and her niece Miss Myrtle Porterfield of Rosendale, went to Barnard Monday evening to visit Mrs. Moyer's sister, Mrs. L. C. Buttmann. They will then go to Miss Porterfield's home in Rosendale, where Mrs. Moyer will visit her sister, Mrs. J. A. Porterfield.

BURIAL OF DR. POWELL AT OLD FAMILY HOME

Eugene P. Powell left Tuesday noon for Oneida, Ill., with the body of his brother, Dr. Edwin Powell, who died Monday morning at his country home, "Hazelwood," four miles southwest of the city. The funeral services will be held according to the wish of Dr. Powell at the old family home at Oneida, where his brother, Harvey Powell, resides. Dr. Powell was a member of the Episcopal church, and the service of that church will be used. Dr. Powell was in Maryville last Saturday and called on his physician, Dr. J. W. Dean, and talked with him in regard to his physical condition. He said that he knew his time was short, and in talking of various matters, told Dr. Dean that he wished to be buried in the old Illinois home.

MOTION TO COME UP WEDNESDAY

What action will the court take in the matter of granting Hez Rasco a new trial Wednesday morning when that motion will come up?

The attorneys for the state are working hard to fight the motion, and feel that the court will not sustain it, while the attorneys for the defense are confident that they will get a new trial for their client.

Court will meet at 9 o'clock Wednesday when this motion will be argued by the attorneys.

In the meantime Hez Rasco is in his usual health, although he is more nervous. Before the trial Hez was a constant reader of books and magazines given to him by Sheriff Tilson, but since the trial he doesn't seem to care so much for reading.

The attorneys for the defense will probably file an appeal to the Supreme court if the court here overrules their motion for a new trial.

GOOD SHOW AT EMPIRE TONIGHT

Manager Burtz of the Empire theater will put on a double moving picture show this evening, and some of the finest pictures ever shown in Maryville will be used. One of the pictures is the "Indian Girl's Friendship," and another one the "Falls of the Rhine."

BINGAMAN CHILDREN IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Dr. Vilas Martin returned Sunday night from Cordell, Okla., where he was called Friday to consult in the case of two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bingaman of Cordell. The little boys are in a very critical condition from scarlet fever, which caused the death of their two little sisters in the last two weeks.

Dr. Martin secured a trained nurse for the children, and although they have the disease in its worst form and seem to be thoroughly poisoned with it, he says they have a chance to recover with a trained nurse. A good physician is in charge of the case. Two families in Cordell have been sorely afflicted with the disease.

Edgar L. Street, general manager of the Maryville Water company, is in Maryville today in conference with the local manager, G. B. Roseberry. Mr. Street's home is in Lawrence, Kan. He came here to look into the water question.

Newell Staples of near Burlington Junction was a city visitor Tuesday.

DEATH OF MR. SMITH

HAD BEEN IN POOR HEALTH FOR SEVERAL MONTHS.

FIFTY-TWO YEARS OLD

A Life-Long Resident of Nodaway County and Son of Elder Smith of St. Joseph.

William A. Smith, a well known resident of Nodaway county, passed away at his home, on East Fourth street, Tuesday morning at 10:20 o'clock, after a several months' illness of a complication of diseases. Mr. Smith had not been feeling well for a year before he was taken to his bed. At times during his sickness he seemed on the way to recovery, and with his friends was very hopeful.

The funeral services will be held at the family home Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Dr. L. O. Bricker of the First Christian church.

Mr. Smith was born fifty-two years ago the 4th day of the coming March, on a farm north of Maryville. He was a son of Elder James A. Smith, a retired minister of the Christian church now living in St. Joseph. On reaching young manhood Mr. Smith engaged in the hardware and grocery business in Pickering, and continued in that business until eight years ago, when the family moved to Maryville, and Mr. Smith became a traveling representative for the International Harvester company and was one of its most valued men. Mr. Smith married Miss Nancy Taylor of Indiana about twenty years ago, who survives him with their two daughters, Misses Ola and Hazel Smith. Mr. Smith was an active member of the First Christian church, and was always on the right side of questions for the public good. Clean and honorable, he leaves his family the memory of a kind, courteous, affectionate and Christian husband, father, brother and son. Besides his aged father and step-mother, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. C. A. Hazlewood of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. R. C. Deppen of San Francisco, and two brothers, L. C. Smith of Chicago and F. P. Smith of Waneta, Neb., all of whom, excepting Mrs. Deppen, are expected to attend the funeral.

Mrs. Hazelwood has been at the Smith home for the past two weeks. Mrs. Deppen visited her brother and his family two or three weeks last summer.

RAINFALL ONE OF THE HEAVIEST

One of the heaviest rains in months fell throughout the western part of Missouri Monday afternoon and night. It was badly needed and will be of much benefit to winter wheat, and will go far toward putting the ground in good shape for the spring plowing. The rainfall at Maryville was 1.03 inches, according to Weather Observer Brink.

A Person's Age

Doesn't necessarily indicate that glasses should or should NOT be worn.

School children often need them badly—while many older people get along nicely without them.

It is solely the condition of the eyes which should decide.

Every person who reads this should make it a point to learn just what shape his or her eyes are in.

It doesn't pay to remain in doubt, especially when finding out costs not even a cent.

If the ability and energy displayed by Prosecuting Attorney Wright and his assistant, M. E. Ford, in the Rasco case are to be taken as a criterion, the office of prosecuting attorney is in thoroughly competent hands. A case that is purely circumstantial in its nature calls for able and thorough handling in order to secure a conviction at the hands of a jury. Despite the fact that Rasco's attorneys made a hard fight for their client, Mr. Wright and his assistants ran down every possible clue and marshaled a surprisingly strong chain of evidence. Their handling of the case throughout showed much thought and careful preparation.

ESCAPING GAS KILLS FAMILY OF SEVEN

Philadelphia Bride-to-Be Dies Few Days Before in Accident.

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Berkowitz and their five children were killed by illuminating gas in their home here.

When their bodies were discovered in the gas-filled room by neighbors, the father lay fully dressed on one bed with the two small boys, while the mother and the three girls were in another bed in the same room, on the third floor. The gas was escaping from a tube which connected a gas stove on the first floor, where the kitchen and living rooms were located.

The father was seen by neighbors going home about 1 a. m. and it is supposed he accidentally stumbled against the tube, pulling it away from the fixture on the wall.

The eldest girl, Minnie, sixteen years old, was to have been married in a few days. Her trousseau was found in the room on the second floor.

APPEARS IN COURT ALIVE

Man Supposed to Be Dead Halts Proceedings to Partition His Estate.

Sedalia, Mo., Feb. 13.—Thomas L. Primm walked into the circuit court room as the trial of his daughter's suit for the partitioning of his estate was begun. He had been away from Sedalia for twenty years and his friends had thought him dead.

As the inquiry began Primm asked permission to address the court. It was granted. He dumfounded the lawyers, relatives and friends with a recital of his disappearance. Intimate friends of the Primm family were called to establish his identity, as his relatives did not recognize him.

In 1890 Primm owned a 120 acre farm north of Sedalia. He was a horse trader widely known. One morning his wife and children arose and discovered Primm was gone.

Primm said he had been living at Plummersville, Ark., and has a family there. Why he left here he will not say.

EXPLOSIONS AT MANAGUA

Ammunition Stored Near Presidential Mansion Set Off.

THREE SENTINELS ARE KILLED

Fusillade Continues for Several Hours. Seven Thousand Rifles and Ten Million Cartridges Destroyed—Accident Believed of Incendiary Origin.

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 14.—An explosion occurred in the ammunition barracks, situated not far from the palace of the president. This was followed by a series of explosions, which killed three sentinels. The structure in which the supplies were housed caught fire and for several hours blazed furiously, further explosions following in rapid succession.

It is estimated that 7,000 rifles and 10,000,000 cartridges were destroyed. All of the artillery, many rifles and a large amount of ammunition were saved.

Troops worked energetically in removing the supplies from the buildings adjoining the ammunition barracks, and when later the fire had burned itself out a search disclosed the bodies of three of the sentinels, who probably were killed by the explosions.

Numerous rumors have been current here respecting the cause of the explosion and in some quarters there is a suspicion that it may have resulted from criminal intent.

The men escapted with their prisoner. County officers are in pursuit with bloodhounds.

They declare Louisville is the proper place for such a celebration.

WARRANT OUT FOR MADERO

Provisional President of Mexico Believed in El Paso.

PAPERS FOUND ON CASSILAS.

Insurrecto Leader Charged With Planning Armed Military Expedition Against Friendly Nation in Violation of Neutrality Laws.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 14.—The self-styled provisional president of Mexico, Francisco I. Madero, is in El Paso unless he has slipped out in the last twenty-four hours. So confident are the United States officials that the directing head of the Mexican revolution is still here that they had a warrant issued for his arrest.

The warrant was issued by United States Commissioner George B. Oliver. The issue of the warrant came as a result of the capture of papers on the person of Martin Cassilas, a revolutionary leader as he was returning to Mexico from a visit to El Paso.

The papers were in the handwriting of Madero and were signed by him. All were dated Feb. 12 and El Paso. The warrant charged that Madero planned an armed military expedition against a friendly nation and caused arms and ammunition to be sent into Mexico from the United States in violation of the neutrality and customs laws. The United States troops and all the federals on the border have been given orders to make the arrest. Last week officials in Juarez issued a circular stating that Madero was waiting in El Paso for a chance to enter that country. This was denied by heads of the insurrecto junta here.

F. I. MADERO.

Cassilas in Jail.

Martin Cassilas, Mexican revolutionary leader, was held in the sum of $1,000 by United States Commissioner Oliver, in default of which he is spending his second night in the El Paso jail. Arrested while returning to his command in Mexico, after a visit to El Paso to ascertain what disposition to make of seventy prisoners, he declares he has committed no crime and will make no effort to give bonds, "not even if you cut off my head," were his parting words.

Cassilas, when he came to El Paso, made the mistake of bringing in his rifle and then tried to take it back again. He also had some revolutionary dispatches when he returned.

Pasqual Orozco, insurrecto leader, the man who gave Juarez the big scare last week, is now camped at Salamayuco, thirty miles south of Juarez, waiting to give battle to Navarro and federal reinforcements, according to his own anouncement to men who returned from there. Navarro is supposed to be thirty miles south, coming up the railroads, although reports in Juarez are that Navarro has gone west and will attempt to get around Orozco.

FOUR STOCKMEN SLAIN BY CATTLE RUSTLERS

Shot From Ambush and Bodies Hidden in Cave.

Alturas, Cal., Feb. 14.—Details received here of the murder of Harry Cambron, J. B. Lexague, Peter Eramuspe and B. Indiano, wealthy stockmen of this county, whose bodies have been found near Denio, Nev., show the tragedy to have been one of the most atrocious crimes in the history of this region.

The men were all unarmed and intent on a peaceful mission at the sheep camps near Denio, when they were shot down and stripped of clothing and valuables. Their bodies were concealed in a hidden cave.

Indiano left home three weeks ago to meet the other three ranchers at Denio and accompany them to the camps. When he arrived in Denio, Indiano told of seeing several freshly slaughtered beeves lying in the canyon, also of seeing two horsemen near the place. It is the theory of the dead men's friends that Indiano surprised the cattle thieves at their work and that the rustlers, seeing him returning with others, thought he had gone for help to give battle and fired on the party from ambush. The bodies of the murdered men were taken to Eagleville.

AMENDS SULLOWAY MEASURE

Senate Reduces Payments to Veterans More Than 70 Years Old to $30.

Washington, Feb. 14.—By a vote of 8 to 3, the senate committee on pensions agreed to report to the senate the senate Sulloway general pension bill, which already has passed the house. It was so amended that the annual cost, in addition to the $153,000,000 estimated for the ensuing year, will be about $45,000,000. As the bill passed the house it would have cost about $50,000,000.

As passed by the house, the Sulloway bill would increase the monthly pension of veterans of sixty-two years from $12 to $15; of sixty-five years from $1 2to $20; of seventy years from $15 to $25, and from seventy or more from $20 to $36. The senate committee by a vote of 6 to 5 reduced the proposed maximum allowance from $36 to $30. As there are estimated to be 62,461 veterans who would be affected by this amendment at the present time the change would decrease the annual cost a little more than $4,500,000.

WANT TO COMPROMISE CASE

No Defense Will Be Made by Bathtub Trust If Only Fines Are Assessed.

Washington, Feb. 14.—Failing to secure the dismissal of the criminal indictment against them, the defendants in the government's action against the so called bathtub trust will resist the government's civil suit and begin their defense at Pittsburg today. The testimony on the government's side in the civil case is all in.

There was an intimation that should the government compromise for fines only in the criminal case, no defense would be offered to the civil suit. W. S. Kenyon, assistant to the attorney general, declines to withdraw his demand for jail sentences.

EGGS AND HOGS ARE LOWER

Sharp Decline in the Cost of Living Is Announced in Kansas City.

Kansas City, Feb. 14.—The high cost of living received a setback when eggs in the local market declined 2 cents a dozen and hog prices were 20 cents a hundred pounds lower. The wholesale quotation for eggs was 14 to 16 cents, which is 16 cents lower than prices at the beginning of the year. Hogs are selling at $1.25 lower than last year, cattle 50 cents to $1 lower and sheep $2 lower.

UNRULY DAUGHTERS.

There is a time in the life of every mother when she begins to feel that her daughter is beyond her. In babyhood and little girlhood it has been an easy matter for the mother to keep the upper hand. It is only as the daughter approaches womanhood that she develops the traits which puzzle and often distress her mother.

"Can this be my sweet baby, my little maid?" is the question which many a mother puts to herself as she sees her daughter developing imperious ways, slangy tendencies, insubordination.

It is at this time that theories go to pieces. It is wonderful how theories will work up to a certain moment, then suddenly we are convinced that any other set of theories might have done just as well, and perhaps better. If great tact is not displayed by the mother at this turning point in a girl's life many dreadful things may happen. There may come an entire separation of interests between herself and her daughters; the girl may develop tendencies which will end in sorrow, and perhaps disgrace, and, worst of all, in the future she may blame her mother for her own shortcomings.

A mother who has reared four girls successfully was asked what she would do if she had an unruly daughter.

She thought a moment, and then said: "I'd love her back to me."

"But that is the trouble with so many girls," I said. "They are spoiled by too much love."

"Not by too much love," she corrected me, "by too much indulgence. The highest kind of love is that which can deny the object of its affections the things which are not good. The sensible mother is not the one who hangs constantly over her child in an attitude of absorbed devotion; she is one who provides a normal outlet for her child's energies. I believe that plenty of wholesome friends will keep a girl's balance better than anything else.

"If I had an unruly daughter I should put her where she could associate with as many healthy, happy girls as possible. Young people make rules by which others must abide and constitute themselves a court of self-control. Moreover, the girl of impulsive nature and warm heart is often much uplifted by the example of some older friend who believes in law and order, obedience and politeness.

"And I should provide the unruly daughter with occupations which would take up most of her time. I would find out what she liked to do, and give her plenty of it. Whether music, athletics, painting or housekeeping, a strenuous interest in and devotion to such an occupation would be the best kind of discipline.

"With normal, wholesome friends and plenty of interesting work, a girl's tendency to unruliness will be greatly curbed, but more than all she should be made to feel her mother's tenderness. The mother who is constantly in a state of argument and opposition cannot expect to control her daughter. The mother who loses her temper or tries to discipline by force will fail, inevitably, and she will not only fail, but she will lose the respect of her daughter and so be ineffective.

"Generally the unruliness of the daughter is the result of some fault in the mother's training. If in little girlhood a child is taught self-control and obedience she will not be uncontrolled and disobedient. The man who has had army training is not as likely to break the laws as those who have known no discipline, and the child who has learned to rule herself can never unlearn the lesson.

"If, however, the harm has been done, and the daughter is unruly, the mother owes it to the girl's future to see that she is kept within bounds. The mother who cannot manage her child should put her where she can learn to live a well regulated life. There are first class schools which will undertake the moral and spiritual training of a girl. These should be sought out and tried. To let a girl go on having her own way, leading her uncontrolled life, is to court disaster.

A big land excursion to

Vollmer, Colo.

near Denver

March 7, 1911

Leaves the Burlington depot in Maryville at 7:50 a. m. and joins the rest of the excursion at St. Joseph. All go together from there to Denver via the Burlington, and then they are taken on the sight seeing tour, and get a grand view of Denver, and from there we go to Greeley and see one of the finest farming countries in the middle west by auto, and from there we go to Vollmer, one of the grandest little towns in Colorado. Vollmer was started last September and is one of the towns so close to Denver that is thriving, and is in the best farming country in Colorado, and about all of this land has been farmed. This valley is called Lupton Meadows, or better known as the Daniel Sullivan ranch. It is one of the finest farming countries in the state of Colorado.

A chance for increase in price. This land is bought by the Denver Laramie Realty Company, connected with the Denver, Laramie & Northwestern railroad. The idea of the company is to get the best farmers on this ground to farm it, for the more good farmers the more tonnage for the road. Now, this land is selling from $40 to $175 per acre, and all of the land lying around it is selling from $250 to $500 per acre. Now, you would say, why don't you sell this land for the same price? I will tell you why we do not. The first place is we want all of the people we can get to locate on this railroad, and good farmers at that. The second place is, the company buys this land in big tracts and gets it cheaper, and the realty company does not want to make a big profit. We want to get the farmers, and to get them they will sell the land at cost, so as to give the farmer a chance to have his land raise so he can have the benefit for the inducement for getting in on the ground floor.

Putting this to a very low estimate, this land will e be worth about $250 per acre in three to five years, so the increase of the land will be about 20 to 25 per cent a year, and a good farmer can make all the way from $50 to $300 per acre farming the land. It is all to the personality of the farmer. There is no question about the water, for the water rights date back to 1859, up to 1866, so they are all prior rights, and when you buy the land you get the water rights with the land. Now is a grand opportunity for you to get one of the finest irrigated farms in within 25 to 30 miles of Denver, on the Denver, Laramie & Northwestern railroad, right in between Denver and Greeley, in the midst of the best farming district in the west today. The soil is of black sandy loam, the richest soil on earth, and in the district where the market can't be beat, for Denver pays out $12,000 a day for produce the year around, and the most of that has to be shipped in, and why not come and buy a farm and get your share of that enormous sum of money and the railroad freight and work for yourself all of the time instead of working part of the time for the railroad. Do you stop to think how much you pay the railroad in a year? You just stop and figure it up and then see how much you can make on an irrigated farm, all for yourself. The freight is one of the most essential things for a farmer to take under consideration and the market is the next. Remember our excursion leaves Maryville March 7 at 7:50 in the morning, and one leaves Burlington Junction March 7 at 8:15 a. m.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

NO LONGER NECESSARY, SAYS A WRITER.

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that nature needs assistance. It is nature's call for help. Gray hairs, dull lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea," which our grand parents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage, and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle and is recommended and sold by

Koch Pharmacy.

Free Child's Remedy

What mother is not looking for something that will help her children in the little ills of life, something for the stomach trouble and the bowel trouble? Long ago she probably has become convinced that a child cannot readily swallow a pill or a tablet, and that to "break them in half and crush them" is an annoyance; that usually they work too drastically, and are nauseating and too powerful for the little one's stomach.

Any mother who will take the trouble of sending her name and address can obtain a free sample bottle of a remedy that thousands of other mothers are using and now paying for. This remedy is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and the offer of a free trial bottle is open to any mother who has not yet used it. Having used it and convinced yourself that it is what you want, you can obtain it in the future of your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as so many others are doing, the free sample being simply to convince you of its merits. It is the best way to begin on it. Mrs. L. Davis of 187 W. Harrison street, Chicago, and Mrs. Mary Belford, 1710 Coke street, Louisville, Ky., both started with a free sample and now they write that they have never been without a bottle in the house since.

It is undoubtedly a great family remedy, as it is adapted to all ages, being mild and pleasant to take and yet thoroughly effective. It is especially the ideal remedy for children and women and old folks, who need something pure, mild and natural. It has the advantage of being a thorough laxative and yet contains tonic properties. Use it for the most stubborn constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and such complaints with a guarantee that it will cure.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 509 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Early Passage of Measure is Assured.

IS MADE A SPECIAL ORDER.

Democrats Vote Almost Solidly in Favor of Motion—McCall and Dalzell to Control Time—Hill of Connecticut Makes Opening Argument.

Washington, Feb. 14.—The McCall bill carrying into effect the Canadian reciprocity agreement reached the floor of hte house and probably will be passed before adjournment today. Even the opponents of the measure admit there is no hope of stopping it in the house.

A test vote came soon after the house was called to order. McCall moved immediate consideration. This was objected to on the ground that it was District of Columbia day on the calendar and important matters of legislation were pending.

When the voting began it became apparent that the lines were being tightly drawn between those favoring and those opposing the agreement. As finally corrected the vote to take up the bill was 197 to 126. The bill will be passed, it is said, by even a larger majority.

One hundred and one Republicans voted against immediate consideration. This number will show a decided diminution on the final roll call. Sixty-three Republicans voted for immediate consideration. The Democratic vote was divided, 134 in favor of immediate consideration and nineteen against.

As in the case of some of the opposing Republicans, a few of the Democrats voted against immediate consideration because they are members of the District of Columbia committee. Democratic leaders say there will be but six or seven votes against the passage of the bill from their side.

No time for a vote was set, but McCall will endeavor to secure an agreement to end general debate at 5 o'clock and then to begin the reading of the bill for amendment, the house to remain in session until the measure is passed. All amendments except one or two minor ones to the wood pulp schedule, to correct errors, will be voted down, for serious amendment would nullify the negotiations.

Republicans Are Divided.

The test vote and the general debate that followed, clearly demonstrated the serious split that exists among the Republicans of the house on reciprocity. It now appears that a majority of the Republicans will vote against the measure, although the president is likely to get more support from that side than he at first anticipated. Like the "regulars," the "insurgent" ranks also are torn wide open and a majority of them will vote against the measure.

Some of the Republicans who spoke said they saw in the reciprocity agreement the beginning of the end of protection. Martin (S. D.) was particularly apprehensive over the assault on the principle of protection. Kendall (Ia.) also took a mournful view of the situation.

The Republican split is accentuated by the fact that one member of that party, McCall (Mass.), is directing the debate in favor of the measure, and another Republican, Dalzell (Pa.), is directing the fight against it.

Representative Hill (Conn.) opened the debate in favor of the bill. He was seconded by Representatives Harrison (N. Y.) and A. Mitchell Palmer (Pa.), both Democrats. Representatives Gaines (W. Va.), Martin (S. D.) and Kendall (Ia.), all Republicans, spoke against reciprocity.

CURTIS ON DIRECT VOTE

Kansas Senator Objects to Form of Proposed Amendment.

Washington, Feb. 14.—As "one of the senators from Kansas," Senator Curtis addressed the senate in opposition to the revised resolution proposing to submit to the state a constitutional amendment for the election of the senators by direct vote. All through his speech he hurled attacks at his colleague, Senator Bristow, for approving of the amended resolution.

Senator Curtis said he was in favor of a constitutional amendment looking to the election of senators by direct vote, but he was not willing it should be amended so congress should give up all its rights to make or alter the regulations of a state for the election of United States senators.

This, he said, was what the amended resolution would provide. The amended resolution, if its substance were approved by the states, would result in the states disfranchising negro voters, if they so desired, without congress being able to raise a hand, he said.
